

WOLMER WOOD,

MARLOW COMMON,

MARLOW, BUCKS.

April 14th 1930.

my dear Philip

I am so sorry but I am afraid I cannot come to you on Wednesday night. I have some work that I must clear off before Easter and I must be here Thursday to finish it, so I can only run up on the day on Wednesday and not stay the night. And I come the following Wednesday, the 20th, is that? Do try to run over to see us while you are at Littleworth Corner for Easter — I hope the weather will behave properly.

By the way, can you send me Nico Jungmann's address? I want to write to him and I do not know where he is living now.

Always yours
W.L.W.
