Dear Maestro,

a few lines. Kind memories & wishes the best to you, Mrs. de László. & tous les chers vôtres for Xmas

— 1930. —

We look forward to seeing you sometime after Xmas & hope you will send early
notice of your visit.

I saw Benlure on Thursday. He had just come from Salina Majorca where he is putting up his wonderful monument to Maurya - I went with the Whitthouses

He is USA. charge d'affaires You remember Mrs. W. as you painted her.
Primo de Rivera is still supreme & long may he be.
He keeps the Soviets out of Spain - I wonder if we are wise to let them in! He works so hard - patriotic, disinterested, courageous.
I met him again on Sunday at Mrs. of Parents' wonderful party & as always he was charming always nice to the little people - a great

Heart & a great soul. — I have the most distressing accounts of the beautiful Matilde de Bea. She has been in bed now 50 days her adoring husband distracted with grief anxiety as she is in constant pain & they don't seem to diagnose it.
They called the Great Specialist from Madrid — Maranon — & operated transfusion of blood —
He says the great hope is her youth — but she has gone to a skeleton.
I am truly sad about it.

I met Louis de los Infantes just now (he is Director Minister) & has known Matilde since a baby & loves her very much. He says that it is some melody of the liver he thinks - the last news is that she was holding her own - I am sure Sebastiao her husband would appreciate a line of sympathy & that you really understand the gravity of her case - that she could get to Paris as arranged.
Tom West Dalison came out with me to Sebastiao & was much fêted -
The matushas
/ at ungarian /

came back but gone for Doctors to Brussels -
He had his arm smashed to pieces in a motoracci.
But has to have it all put together again he was in great suffering - They are charming people there.
de matwiska beautiful.

Renewed kind wishes
from your's most truly
H. A. K. Boyd.
