July 10th

My dear Mr de Laszlo,

You may not remember, but a few weeks ago you were kind enough to give me some of your valued advice in regard to my painting, and also you said that you would like to see the Chapel of the Convent, where I was then staying, in regard to your new picture.

I, am no longer staying there but am visiting friends here in Chelsea, however I go to the Convent quite often, and if you would still care to see it I would be delighted to show you over.

The nuns have spent great care in making the Chapel as artistic as possible, and they would know, be very happy for you to see it.

Will you be kind enough to remember me to M^{me} de Laszlo.

Believe me,

Yours sincerely,

Rosamunda de Lavinella.
