

24 July 1932

Dear Mr de Kaszko.

Many thanks.

Anne Marie shall be at your house next Wednesday 27th at 10.15. I hope
she will take a nice
smiling face with her!

I will come up too, so
as to find out something.
If possible, about future
sittings, as plans are being made for her to leave

London for several visits
on Monday, 1 Aug.

How pleased her father will be to have your sketch! I heard yesterday from Bad Hall,
not as good news as I hoped for.

I did not know you painted the beautiful portrait of my old
and dear friend Frank Cook,
who died last Christmas Day.

Anne Marie returned last evening,
rejoicing, after her visit to the Parcho.
My compliments to Mrs de Laszlo,
please.

Yours sincerely
P. R. Phipps.
