

W. White

5th December, 1932.

Dear Mr. White,

I deeply regret that I am not to have the pleasure of seeing you at the unveiling this afternoon, and am still more sorry to hear the cause of it. I hope very much that you will very soon be fully recovered, and that we may meet then.

With kindest regards,

Yours sincerely,