

The New York Times
Times Square

August 4, 1932.

Dear friend deLaszlo:

I am glad to have your letter of July 25th. The Great War canvas interests me greatly; I wish you high success in this ambitious undertaking which should call forth your highest talents.

I am not, as you surmise, in the country, but am busy at my desk in the city. Weekends find me at the shore usually, however.

We too, hope that the coming elections will aid to clear the overcharged European air. Whatever party is successful (I, being a Democrat, wish to see Mr. Roosevelt elected) I believe that American cooperation with Europe will be forthcoming.

With regards to your family and best wishes,

Always sincerely yours,

Philip A. deLaszlo, Esq.,
3, Fitzjohns Avenue,
London, N. W. 3, England.

Irving Wiley