Dear Mr. de Lesgö,

I want to write & apologize for my strange behaviour on Friday & do hope you understood.

I was so sorry to have to refuse your kind invitation, as I was unable to cancel my engagements.

I did every mortal thing to get hold of your telephone number until - failing in all my efforts - I could but send you a wire, which must have reached you very late.

Now I hear that you are very kindly inviting me to lunch with you on Monday, & I thank you very much & look forward to meeting
you then.

Yours sincerely

Mathilde Windischperg.
