

TELEGRAPHIC ADDRESS
"MARS, DUBLIN."

19 Mary

17, COLLEGE GREEN,

DUBLIN.

My dear Lucy,

I am glad to hear that you are able to stay at Sir
C. Russell's house -

When I saw him in London he seemed to be a little disturbed at your ^{inquiry} ~~request~~ whether you could remain at home and it wd be hard of fair

to expect him to give you the use of the house independently, as of course he will want it for his own use when spring & summer
come round.

I spoke to Sturt & Agnes Lenich about this interview when I was in London & gave them all the particulars you wished them to know. He Said he had not heard the case talked about at all "in high quarters" & he was interested in what I told him

Yours truly
H. R. Gump