Dear friend de Laszlo:

I am delighted to have your note of May 17 upon my return from a week's visit to Washington where I attended the Convention of the Advertising Federation of America, the members of which I addressed at dinner last Tuesday night. The other speakers were Secretary of the Interior Wilbur and Senator Harrison.

While in Washington I dined at the Hungarian Legation with Count and Countess Szechenyi.

I note with interest that you executed portraits of Mr. and Mrs. Ochs, which I look forward with much pleasure to seeing.

Thank you for the reproductions of the portraits of Marshal Lyautey and Marchesa del Merito. I am showing them to our pictorial editor. I agree with you that the lady is very beautiful.

I spent Tuesday of this week in New London, Connecticut, where I addressed the students of the Connecticut College for Women.

I greatly enjoyed meeting the Earl of Derby on his recent visit here. I attended several functions in his honor and he was our guest in The Times building.

I am looking forward to the pleasure of seeing you in the Autumn. I shall tell Paul of your letter when I see him.

With regards,

Sincerely yours,

Louis Wiley
