

LONDON,
10th May, 1930.

I wish to thank you for your letters which give me great pleasure, and I assure you that I much regretted being prevented from going over to the States this Spring. However, I have now definitely decided that my visit there will be at the beginning of November when I am looking forward to paint various friends and to see much of you.

It will interest you to know that Mr. and Mrs. Ochs are over here and that I have to-day finished their portraits. We gave them a very interesting reception yesterday which they much enjoyed; he is such a dear man.

If the reproduction of my portrait of Count Bethlen has not yet reached you I shall be able to let you have one over here when you arrive. My wife and I are looking forward to greeting you in our home for certain this Fall.

I am off to-morrow to Paris where I shall be until the end of this month. Do let me know in good time of your arrival in London.

With our kindest regards,
Believe me, dear friend,
Sincerely yours,

James Speyer, Esq.
