

8th May, 1930.

Dear Sir,

I would like to express my appreciation of your serious and well considered note on the Exhibition of The Royal Society of British Artists, as I feel that a Society so long established and with such honourable traditions deserves support and encouragement.

Yours very truly,

The Editor,
The Connoisseur Ltd.,
1, Duke Street,
St. James's, S.W. 1.