Dear Mr de Lazlo,

I have just returned from Budapest and called on my way at Vienna where I received your very kind letter and cards of introduction. I am so very sorry that I was unable to use them this time. But I am returning to Budapest in November to broadcast and to play publicly with orchestra, and I shall have great pleasure in using the cards then. We shall be back in London in October, and I hope very much to arrange for you and your wife to dine here with us before I go abroad again.

With kindest regards to you both,
Yours very sincerely,

Daisy Kennedy Drinkwater
