Dear Mr Lombard-Lagasse.

I was unable to be able to arrange to see you, or speak with you, before I left England, and am now in Vienna for a few days, and leave tomorrow for Prague.
On Monday ^{20th} next, I go to Budapest for a few days.

I am hoping to arrange to play my violin in Budapest, both in concert, & on the Radio, in November, next. —

If you are at home, ~~and~~ would ^{you} be so charming as to write me the introduction you so very kindly offered me, when we dined with you and your wife.

As I am not certain of my Budapest address yet, if you would write to me at the above address, my sister will forward to me immediately. — I was very sorry you were not able to do the head of me for Paris as you suggested. — I have just been visiting some mutual friends in Vienna — Frau von Kuhn the Theresianum where I have known some time a student. — May I hope to be lucky to hear from you by Monday next? Yours very sincerely Doris Kennedy Drinkwater
