National Gallery,
Millbank. S.W.
April 14th 1931.

Dear Sir,

It is very generous of you to offer to present to the Gallery a work by Lucien Simon. I think he ought to be represented here.

The difficulty is that all offers have to come before the Board and it is impossible for me to give you any opinion until the Board have seen the pictures. The next Board meeting will be on April 27th.

I will go to the R.B.A. to see the pictures and will try to get the Trustees to visit the Gallery in Suffolk Street before the meeting.

Yours very truly,

{signed} J. B. MANSON.
