

8th December, 1938.

Dear Captain Holme,

It gave me great pleasure to hear from you, it is so long since we met.

I will be very pleased to write a study of my experiences with your Father, in whom I lament a good friend, with whom my association goes back about thirty-two years.

Your suggested title for the article "The Founder of The Studio as I knew him" is, I think, a most appropriate one.

I note you would like to have the text early in January, and will do my best to let you have it at the beginning of the month.

Do you think you could lay your hand on the number of The Studio which had a special article on my works, and many reproductions of them, and which appeared about 1900? I am sure I possess it myself, but you may be able to let me have it. I would be glad to have it at your earliest convenience, and would return it to you.

Yours sincerely,

Captain E.G.Holme,
