Dear Mr. de Laszlo,

I am preparing at the moment a special anniversary number of "THE STUDIO" magazine for April, in which month it celebrates its fortieth year of existence, and I would like to include in it a written study of my Father by someone who knew him well.

It would give me great pleasure if you yourself would do this. I do not want a long article, say about 500 to 600 words under some such title as "The Founder of The Studio as I knew him".

I hope you will consent to do this and in that case I should want to have your text early in January. Will you let me know as soon as you can?

Yours sincerely,

Editor
