

13th May, 1932.

Dear Dr. Lindsay,

In reply to your letter of yesterday, for which I thank you, I do not know if the Royal Geographical Society's portrait of the late Lord Curzon is a copy of the one I did which hangs in All Souls.

If you wish to have a copy done, I would be very pleased to recommend to you Mr. Sydney Kendrick, Fulthorpe Studios, 30 Warwick Avenue, Paddington, W.2., who for many years has been doing copies of my portraits with great skill and understanding. I do not know what he would charge, but it would certainly not exceed £100. Usually before he delivers his work he invites me to give my approval of it.

I intend to come down towards the end of this month to see John, when I look forward to calling upon you.

I am,

Yours sincerely,

A.D.Lindsay, Esq., C.B.E., LL. D.,
The Master's House,
Balliol College,
Oxford.