Dear Mr. de Laszlo,

I am enclosing a poster of a Dinner that is being held in aid of the Charing Cross Hospital, and am writing on behalf of Lord Lonsdale to ask if you would honour him by going to the Dinner as his guest.

It would be wonderful if the Chairman could put up for auction during the evening a small canvas by you, and would be of the very geatest help to the charity.

Trusting that you will be able to come,

Yours sincerely,

Edward J. Luven
