

13th December, 1932.

Dear Mr. Inman,

Your kind letter reached me after some delay, as it had been addressed to my son Stephen de Laszlo, but I write now to assure you that it is with great pleasure that I am offering the canvas for such a noble cause as Charing Cross Hospital. I hope very much that Mr. Duveen will get a good price for it, as he is so keen to do.

I much look forward to being present tomorrow, with my son, and am sure it will be a delightful evening. I am glad to know that I shall have the pleasure of making your acquaintance.

Yours sincerely,

Philip Inman, Esq.,
Charing Cross Hospital,
W. C. 2.
