

TELEGRAPHIC ADDRESS
"MARS, DUBLIN."

17, COLLEGE GREEN,
DUBLIN.

21 June 1881

My dear Lucy.

Howard
which whom I have been discussing about - how Buesford a year or the
we that - it would now be a nice letter to write to him through a solicitor.
He would in the first place regard it as an unkindly action after by visit Whinn - in the second place named five us Sahstachun as he named Shelley <sup>bring self back</sup> <sup>and the privilege to speak here in the H.H.</sup> and Lamm barrow

better to keep in front terms with him, as we might have to approach
him later -
mean while Hall means for Lamm barrow to approach Sir George

Came on the lines we discussed -
I am afraid I have been very little use to you, but it's difficult to advise in a matter where one is not an fact in the all the pros & cons, & I do wish I could help you more. An show keep us in touch with things as they go along, & don't forget to send us the Thousand -
about the names too

you have the warrants for the payments & if you send them to us we will arrange for payment -

I got over all right but had a rough passage.
Now good luck to you

Ever or a the
Abel