

2nd October, 1933.

My dear Lafita,

I have just returned from Paris, where I have been for a fortnight, which prevented my being able to attend the opening of your exhibition, which I greatly regretted. I hope to see it early this week, however, and hope you may have a great success.

We will both be very glad to see you, and if Madame Lafita is with you hope you will both give us the pleasure to lunch with us on Thursday, at 1 o'clock.

Hoping this will be convenient to you, and much looking forward to seeing you,

Believe me,

Yours very sincerely,
