Dear Mr de Laszlo.

I wonder if you remember coming one morning to our little Casa at Taormina, when Major Longden was staying with us last year.

I am writing to ask your help with regard to a trip, we hope to do to Hungary, next April or May; we hope to go to Budapest & then we want to stay for a couple of weeks somewhere in the country.

I suppose you do not know of anyone with a country place, where we could stay as paying guests, & where I could paint, as we perpetually don't want to stay in hotels all the time.
Also could you kindly tell me the ^{address} name of your young friend, who was at Mr. Hutson's villa the afternoon we met you there, as he told me he could give me information about music in Hungary when we came there.

I hope you will forgive me for troubling you.

Y sincerely
