My dear Mr. De Haszlo,

Many thanks for your invitation to the P.V. of your Exhibition of Portraits. We should have loved to be there & to meet you & Mr. De Haszlo, but we cannot manage it. I shall certainly go one day when I am in town & hope that the Exhibition will be a great success & bring a handsome sum to the A.G.B. The situation at the present time is fearful & when we consider that there are hundreds of "Artists" everywhere, who have never had any training at all, I cannot imagine how the Committee dispense their funds. It must be a very difficult job. We are so pleased to hear of the engagement of your third son & send him our heartiest congratulations. It will be delightful to find that they are all happily married but sad for Mr. De Haszlo to lose them all. Finally, it seems only the other day when you painted that delightful portrait of the three little boys!

I can quite believe that you will be absolutely happy when you are able to devote yourself to your big pictures & lose yourself in it - but as long as there is a big demand for your good portraits, you will have to stick to them. There is after all infinite variety & interest there - particularly if you could pick out your subjects! With kindest greetings from us both

Yours ever sincerely
Robert Morley
