Tuesday

My dearest Lee - You just come to I must send such a line - you should get a letter from me today - you was written yesterday - good going! - - - We desire Pat is engaged to that charming girl - Grace met her in Stockholm & admired & liked her so much - I expect Ford G. will come round - he will have to - as they want to marry so soon - he should be thankful to get a son-in-law like Pat -

Dearest Lee. How I wish you could come to us - but no one is allowed in now - however you have that good habit to fall back on till you get your maids - it's bad luck all this coming this bad week - No Peggy is expected - I trust all will work off well with her - she will be well cared for by Joey - We had a row last night but was a long one - 2 hours - nothing happened

Here - a wild storm in night - 1 of the windows in top floor was blown out on 5 dawn - it was stupidly left open - storm is still going on - it will delay that black guard's invasion !! so I trust it will rape all the night - I keep wonderfully well - sleep a bit in afternoons - I am surprised at myself I don't seem to care I calm the boys after our cable is in afternoons which is good for her I keep her in the air - we only go out early in the morning -

I pray for you every day dearest - May you be kept in safety to the dear boys -

Please send Pat's address - I want to write to him

Travelling Paul

Written for your time - he is in room in town!

Frank & I go to doctor for 2 nights only - Frank is anxious about Ernest he has not
