Dear Mr. de la Torre -

How kind of you to send me your sketch of my husband's portrait.

We have been so intensely interested in looking at the two pictures
together, we have hardly done anything else since you ^{giving} much valued

gift arrived.
Your sketch has troubled me very much as I do not know now
if I was correct

or not: still I feel your portrait is a picture of my husband as I know him and the sketch is as the world knows him.
The two pictures
brunch being before my mind the words of Robert Browning's I speak

you know them

shall be at home any time after four o'clock and delighted if you can come.

Your much valued
gift will always be a token of a life

We are so hoping to see you both on Sunday
the 25th but please
this must not interfere with your promise to King & Saunderson to see your portrait on the 31st of March or the 1st or 2nd of April.

our friendship
between us all,
Yours very sincerely
Lucy M. Horne,
