

Bendir.

26th July, 1930.

I wish to thank you for your very appreciative letter. I am so glad to know that the portrait I painted of your charming little Jane gives you pleasure and satisfaction, and that you like the photographs.

I must reiterate that the hours, which I spent painting your beautiful little daughter, were an unusual pleasure to me, and she was a constant inspiration.

I much hope that, when I hold my next exhibition in London, you will be good enough to allow me to include in it my portrait of Jane.

Please remember me kindly to Mrs. Bendir, and believe me

Yours sincerely,
