Dear Mr Raszli

My wife has asked me to reply to your letter. I was expecting to get longer notice from you and am sorry to say that I am rather full of engagements now. I could not be at Barnett Hill next week & cannot give you a full week until the week commencing Dec 16th. I could give you

the mornings of Wed.
Thurs. & Friday in next week & the same
in the following week,
but it must be in London as I must be here on the afternoons of those days. I am sorry I can't do better than this & shall be glad to hear what will suit you best. Would you

please reply to Barnett Hill as I shall be there on Saturday.

Yours truly

J. H. Brown
