Dear Mr de Laszlo,

I have to thank you very much for your letter of 20th October and I much regret not replying to it before now. Owing to the illness of my Wife I have not been in a position to think of anything definite. I think Mr Robertson has told you all about how we are situated at the present time. I really hope you can come to Dunira in January or February as I am sure you could make a very nice group and also two separate portraits of my two children.

I hope to be in London in December with my Wife when I will call on you.

I thank you for your remarks about the portrait of Mrs Macbeth and I am also sorry it was not at Dundee as I consider it one of your best works.

With kind regards.

Yours sincerely,
