Illustrated London News.—The colour printing of 912 the Christmas number does great credit to the English publishing trade. The sentimental Christmas pictures of former times are now quite things of the past; instead we have reproductions of some of the best work shown at the Royal Academy and the Salon, a painting by Laszlo, and a beautiful Japanese series. Stories by Edna Ferber, Blasco Ibanez, Ernest Raymond, Herbert Shaw, and Holloway Horn. 172, Strand, W.C.2.
