A COSTUME PAGEANT.

A pageant of costume will be a feature of the Empire Ball. Miss Olga Nethersole is organising to be held at Lord Leverhulme's house, The Hill, at Hampstead, on April 30. Dancers may go dressed as the historical character or the greatest factor they think has helped to build up the Empire. Mr de Laszlo has promised to paint the portrait of the winner of the prize for the best representation, and some beautiful costumes will doubtless be seen. The ballroom at The Hill is one of the biggest private rooms in London. The dance is for the People's League of Health which, when her V.A.D. work ended, Miss Nethersole founded, and for which she works most devotedly.
