PAGEANT OF EMPIRE.

Brilliant Gathering at Lord Leverhulme's House.

Wonderful scenes were witnessed last night at Lord Leverhulme's house, Hampstead, which he lent for the League of Health Ball.

Lord Leverhulme received a large and distinguished company of guests.

In addition to the dance, various features of interest were introduced, chief of which was a pageant of Empire, in which prizes were awarded for the best costumes representing features of the British Empire.

The chief prize was a portrait of the winner, to be painted by Mr. de Laszlo.

A series of entertainments was arranged, and during supper in the famous music-room the guests were entertained to a cabaret show, in which Lady Eleanor Smith and Baroness Farnivall took part.
