

International Press-Cutting Bureau

Extracted from
DAILY CHRONICLE.
London.

Date

20 MAR 1925

ROMANCE OF CHORUS GIRL'S PICTURE.

Famous Painter's Gift to Member of Hippodrome Cast.

Mr. De Lazlo, the famous artist, has painted the portrait of Miss Adeline Walker, one of the Hippodrome beauty chorus. It was hung in the vestibule of the theatre yesterday, in a draped alcove lit by hidden electric lights.

"About a year ago Miss Walker attended a London dance," said an official of the Hippodrome, last night to a "Daily Chronicle" representative, "and won a prize as the beauty of the evening. Then Mr. Lazlo said to her, 'I should love to paint your portrait, and I will give it you when it is finished.'"