Her Portrait Painted.

ONE congratulates Miss Adeline Walker, an adornment of the Hippodrome chorus, on being more than attractive enough to justify the luck that entitled her to a portrait by Mr. Philip de Laszlo. Her costume at a recent fancy dress ball won her the ticket which pledged Mr. de Laszlo's name and reputation, and the finished picture now hangs in the Hippodrome vestibule.

MISS ADELINE WALKER.

The artist paints pretty women with as much ease as you or I would light a cigarette, and he has done Miss Walker in his traditionally clever and extremely pleasant manner.
