LANCING HEADMASTER RETIRING. — After sixteen years of notable service as Headmaster of Lancing College—one of the big public schools of the country—Canon Bowlby is retiring. On Saturday, in the presence of a great gathering of present and old boys, there was unveiled in the school a striking portrait of Canon Bowlby which has been painted by Mr de Laszlo to mark the occasion. Canon Bowlby was also presented with an album containing the names of the subscribers. A high tribute to the retiring Headmaster was paid by Dr. R. Sanderson, son of an illustrious predecessor of Canon Bowlby, and all joined in recognizing how the Canon has worthily upheld the fine traditions of Dr. Sanderson and Mr. Tower. Progress has been made in all directions during Canon Bowlby's administration and the school roll has more than doubled.
