ROYALTY AT

Prince and Princess Connaught yesterday afternoon paid a visit of nearly three hours' duration to Luna Park, the receipts from which go to the Reconstruction Fund of Middlesex Hospital, of which institution the Prince is President. Their Royal Highnesses saw the whole of the variety entertainment in the open-air theatre, took tea in the café, and made a complete tour of the side shows before they left.

WEMBLEY £100 PRIZE

The attendance at the British Empire Exhibition yesterday was 52,117. Mr. G. W. Light, Approach-road, Margate, correctly estimated this number, and wins the Wembley £100 attendance prize.

The Polish delegates to the International Prison Congress, now being held in London, were the guests of the Polish Minister at luncheon yesterday. The Queen of the Belgians honoured Mr. P. A. de Laszlo with sittings for her portrait at Welbeck Abbey before leaving England. The Queen has sent a donation to help the Special Appeal in aid of the East London Hospital for Children, Shadwell. Lady Turner, wife of Sir William Turner, Lord Mayor of Belfast, has been appointed a Magistrate for the City.

Lord Buckmaster, the Hon. G. Howard Ferguson, K.C., Premier of Ontario, and the Rev. H. R. L. Sheppard, vicar of the Church of St. Martin-in-the-Fields, Trafalgar-square, are leaving for Canada to-day. Mrs. Jean Eliza Ann Barton, widow of Mr. Richard Bolton Barton, of Stour Lodge, Bradfield, Essex, died at her residence in Pulteney-street, Bath, last night, in her hundredth year. Her late husband, who died forty-three years ago, was Chief Magistrate of Bombay. Mrs. Barton was proud of the fact that her two maids had remained with her 37 and 24 years respectively.
