

International Press-Cutting Bureau,

Extract from
LEEDS MERCURY
Leeds.

Date 12 OCT 1926

912 Sir Esme Howard, the British Ambassador to the United States, left London on Saturday to join the Aquitania at Southampton, on his way back to Washington. Among those travelling by the same train were Sir C. Addis, chairman of the Hong-Kong and Shanghai Banking Corporation, and Mr. T. De Laszlo, the painter.