ONE OF THE HOSTESSES AT TO-MORROW'S DINNER AT THE SAVOY : VISCOUNTESS WILLINGDON.

Viscountess Willingdon, whose husband was Governor of Bombay from 1913-1919, and of Madras until last year, is one of the hostesses at the dinner to be held to-morrow (Feb. 19), at the Savoy Hotel, in aid of the Crosby Hall Fund. The Prince of Wales is to be the principal guest, and the company will include many distinguished people. The fund is for the adaptation of Crosby Hall to house University women from all parts of the world who are studying in London; and the hostesses at the dinner include representatives from the Dominions and foreign countries.
