The Press and Publications Board of the Church Assembly (Church House, Westminster, S.W.) has published a sixpenny pamphlet giving a full account of the unveiling ceremony when the portrait of the Archbishop of Canterbury was presented to the Church House. The narrative is made the more valuable by an excellent reproduction of the painting by Mr. Philip de Lazlo, and many will be glad to preserve a souvenir of a unique occasion. The address of the Archbishop is marked by the hallowed wisdom of age and the Christian spirit that trusts God and boldly faces the future. 912
