An All Arts Dinner.—Mr. G. P. Catchpole (Mr. London writes) has secured some lions for the fifth annual dinner of the Faculty of Arts.

The Ministers of Poland, Switzerland, Norway, Greece and Rumania have promised to attend, and so have the High Commissioners for Australia, South Africa, Newfoundland and Southern Rhodesia, and four Dominion Agents-General.

Captured Lions.—Lord Hewart, Lord Ashfield, Lord Eustace Percy, Sir Frank Dicksee, Sir Edward Marshall Hall, Sir Robert Witt, Sir Hugh Allen, M. de Laszlo, and Miss Lilian Baylis will help to make the gathering a truly representative one.

One of its newest activities is the Nursery, which runs its own tea shop, staffed by a number of pretty and talented girls, actresses and artists.
