

International Press-Cutting Bureau

Extract from,
TIMES EDUCATIONAL SUPPLEMENT.
London.

LANCING COLLEGE.

912

A portrait by Mr. de Laszlo of Canon Bowlby, who is retiring after 16 years, was unveiled at Lancing College on Saturday. The ceremony was held in the Great School, where the portrait will be hung, together with those of previous headmasters. Mr. R. Sanderson, a son of a former headmaster of the school, who unveiled the portrait, mentioned some of the many things which Canon Bowlby had done for Lancing. In reply the headmaster spoke of the unforgettable debt of all Lancing men to Bernard Tower, his predecessor, and of the loyal response always made by past members of the school to any appeal which the school might make.