'SI esed no sieedMARRIAGES.

its foundation. THE HON. DENIS DARBYSHIRE.

> arranged, and will tween Lieutenant-Bingham, D.S.O.. Lord Clanmorris. Down, and Vera, te Major and Mrs. Sefton Park, near

D MISS LOCHHEAD. nnounced between byal Garhwal Rifles, nk Challen and Mrs. Elizabeth Thomson of Mr. Kerr Loch-

on and Miss_L.

between Captain the Queen's Bays, will take place at erks, on Tuesday,

Miss H. G. James. nounced, and the place, between Mr. I Scott, Royal l Scott, Royal Brigadier General s. Scott of Tulla, ertrude, second acis R. James, of iss M. Bond. ween Mr. A. E. E. Porritt, of lly Bond, niece of Wanganui, St. Martin-in-

M. HOWARD. between Hugh nd Mrs. E. J. ce Millicent, Vrs. Howard, Juo ... owo shi the town. Builisynu , Vabreisey, Bribash, wnusah, will V. Murray, of the late h Cairney, filliam D.

bridge. RINTOUL. Ir. J. W. Shepton hursday,

INCENT AND MISS P. H. WILKINSON.

has been arranged, and will September, between John nas been arranged, and will
a September, between John child of Major J. M. Vincent Mrs. Vincent, of Hemsworth, near Pontefract, Yorkshire, and be, daughter of the late T. L. and Mrs. Wilkinson (formerly of Abbey, Co. Durham) and niece of Naylor, Sunderland House, Tickhill, serbam. iérham.

B. ELMS AND MISS M. M. HOOPER. ngagement is announced between Mr. cous Benbow Elms, of The Gordons, sek, Newton Abbot, S. Devon, and ie Myrtle, third surviving daughter of the Mr. Joseph Hole Hooper and Mrs. r, of Lyminster, Littlehampton, Sussex.

D. C. CUTHBERTSON AND MISS B. KERR.

e engagement is announced between id C. Cuthbertson, son of Mr. and Mrs. iam Cuthbertson, of Maitland Lodge, Idingston, and Bessie, daughter of Mr. Mrs. James Kerr, of Banff, Scotland.

MARRIAGE.

IR. J. H. S. LUCAS-SCUDAMORE AND MISS

The marriage took place at St. Mark's, North Audley-street, yesterday, of Mr. John Harford Stanhope Lucas-Scudamore, only son of the late Colonel E. S. Lucas-Scudamore son of the late Colonel.E. S. Lucas-Scudamore and of Mrs. Lucas-Scudamore, of Kentchurch Court and Pontrilas Court, Herefordshire, and Castle Shane, Co. Monaghan, to Miss Elsie Maude Scott, daughter of the late Mr. W. P. Scott, R.N., and Mrs. Scott, of Burnham, Surrey, and 2, West Chapel-street, Mayfair. The Rev. W. G. Pennyman officiated.

The bride, who was given away by Mr. Clive Burn, wore a dress of ivory silk lace and

RECEPTIONS.

BRIDGEWATER HOUSE.

The Earl and Countess of Ellesmere held a reception last night at Bridgewater House, St. James's, for Conservative and Unionist members of both Houses of Parliament to meet the Prime Minister.

Among those present were :-

Among those present were:—
The Duchess of Aberoom, the Earl and Countess of Albenarie, Earl and Countess Amherst, Lord and Lady Ampthill, the Countess of Ancaster, the Marquess and Marchioness of Anchesey, Viscount and Viscountess Astor, the Duchess of Atholi, Sir William and Lady Alexander, the Duchess of Atholi, Sir William and Lady Alexander, and Mrs. Jamery, Lord and Lady Aspety, Sir Herbert and Lady Austin, the Maharsiah of Alwar, the Dowager Duchess of Aberoon, Viscount's and Viscountess D'Abernon, Lady Alinaton, Evelyn Lady Alington, the Dowager Countess of Aritin, Lord and Lady Ashburton, the Duches of Aritin, Lord and Lady Ashburton, the Duches of Aritin, Lady Chodagh Anson, the Marquess and Marchioness of Aliesbury, the Hon. Rupert and Mrs. Anson, the Hon. Arthur Abson, Lord and Lady Askwith, Priscilla Countess Annesley, the Earl of Altamont, Lady Amherst of Hackney, Michael Lady Amherst of Lady Amherst of Hackney, Michael Lady Amher

Schmitches Ausgen, John and Ladry Assaythi, Principles, The Earl of Illatiour, Lord and Ladry Bailour of Burleich, The Earl of Illatiour, Lord and Ladry Bailour, the Marquess and Marchioness of Bath, Barl and Countess Bailourst. Admirtal of the Fleet Lord and Loudy Barneys, the Marquess and Marchioness of Bath, Barl and Countess Bailourst. Admirtal of the Fleet Lord and Loudy Earlier, Lord and Ladry Bailour, and Loudy Countess of Birkenhead, the Earl and Countess of Bradford, the Duchess of Burchenke, Lord and Ladry Bailour, Marguest Bailourst. He Hon. Sir Gervase and Ladry Barleich, Major Sir Richard Barnett, the Hon. Sir Gervase and Ladry Berry, Sir Robert and Ladry Bird, Sir Rowland and Ladry Berry, Sir Robert and Ladry Bird, Sir Rowland and Ladry Berry, Sir Robert and Ladry Bird, Sir Rowland and Ladry Berry, Sir Robert and Ladry Burleich, Sir Vansttatt and Ladry Burleys, Mr. and Unane Caroline Bridgen and Ladry Choice Brassey, Mr. and Unane Caroline Bridgen and Ladry Burleys, Sir Robert and Ladry Burleys, Sir Robert and Ladry Burleys, Sir Rechand and Rechand and Ladry Burleys, Sir Rechand and Ladry Burleys, Sir Rechand and Rechand and Rechand and Ladry Burleys, Sir Rechand and Rec

WILD ROSES.

A PEERLESS SPECIES.

(FROM A CORRESPONDENT.)

To resarians the notion that any wild rose can compare with the product of the hybridizer's skill may seem absurd, and if the two classes are judged by the same standards there is, perhaps, something to be said for the rosarians' point of view. But hybrid roses come and go, and, while it is true that the popular favourites of the last generation are almost forgotten now, it is equally true that if any rose grower had evolved such a rose as Moyesii 30 years ago its star would still be in the ascendant, if only because, of its kind, the rose is unique. Lacking all the qualities which go to make the show rose or the popular bedding rose of the moment, and, like some wild plants, usually curiously out of place on the show bench, Rosa Moyesii is yet so obviously well bred as to compel admiration and a measure of respect, and in its typical form so beautiful.

That in the past it has not always commanded either admiration or respect is due to a peculiarity the species shares with so many wild plants of refusing to breed true to type when grown from seed, and so it has happened all too often that eager buyers or grateful recipients of specimens raised from seed have had their spirits damped and their judgment of the rose innocently warped by the sight of blooms of a dirty red or brown colour, unworthy of the plant which bore them. This is a curious trick which Nature often plays in her great nursery of plants, but with experience and the spread of gardening knowledge there comes the realization that there are good and less good and sometimes worthless forms of many wild plants. Unfortunately the less good forms sometimes get into circulation first, and, though this was not the case with R. Moycsii, some years elapsed after the plant was introduced, about 20 years ago, before it was generally realized that it could not always be trusted to repeat itself from seed. When nurserymen discovered that they were unconsciously selling something which was not ne trusted to repeat itself from seed. When nurserymen discovered that they were unconsciously selling something which was not what it purported to be they fell to grafting the rose, but the better plan with a wild rose of this type is to have it on its own roots and to raise it from cuttings; they strike readily enough enough.

The difference in the forms of R. Moyesii is The difference in the forms of R. Moyesu is not so much in leaf or habit, but in the size and colour of the single flowers, which in shape are comparable with those of the white Japanese anemone: in fact, if one could stain that lovely flower a deep, rich, velvety crimson of a peculiarly grateful tint seldom seen in nature or art, it would almost bring the bloom of Moyes's rose to life, golden heart and all. Rosa Moyesi is not for beds, for it needs room. Old plants may be as much as 8ft. or 9ft. Rosa Moyesii is not for beds, for it needs room. Old plants may be as much as 8tt. or 9tt. high, and not much less across, and, our climate notwithstanding, they have lately been smothered in bloom. In a few months the bloom will be replaced by brilliant scarlet, bottle-shaped "fruits," as botanists call the seed vessels. In themselves these fruits have all the elements of classic beauty, and they are the plant's answer to those who say that it only shows its form for three weeks in the year. The rose is best placed where it can be seen on all sides, and there is no need to plant single specimens: three are better, and, for those who have the room, a veritable thicket is better still. Except for removal of dead wood, no still. Except for removal of dead wood, no pruning is needed. In light soils R. Moyesii is pruning is needed. In light soils R. Moyesu is slow to grow, but not so in generous ground. The form with flowers of real vieux rose runs the type with crimson bloom very hard, and either is surely the peer of any plant which has come from China this century.

Moray, the Hon, Mrs. Henry Molyneux, Major the Hon, Richard Molyneux, the Hon, Violet Mills, the Hon, Lady Miller, the Dowager Countees of Minto, Lady Katherine Meade. Mr. and Lady Evelyn Malcolin, the Earl and Countess of Mexborough, General Sir John and Lady Maxwell, Admiral of the Fleet the Hon, Sir Hedworth and Lady Meux, General Sir Ivor and the Hon, Lady Maxe, Admiral of the Fleet Sir William and Lady May, the Hon, Alexander McDonnell, Sir Bernard and Lady May, Baroness Moncheur, Lord and Lady Newton, the Earl and Countess of Northbrook, Sir Joseph and Lady Nall, Sir Douglas and Lady Newton, Colonel and Mrs. W. G. Nicholson, Sir Herbert and Lady Nield, Sir Charles and Lady Nall, Sir Douglas and Lady Newton, Colonel and Mrs. W. G. Nicholson, Sir Herbert and Lady Nield, Sir Charles and Lady Nall, Sir Douglas and Lady Newton, the Maharajah of Nawanagar, Colonel Sir John and Lady Pretyman Newman, Major Sir Harry and Lady Newton, Colonel Sir Henry and Lady Norvie, Sir John and Lady Pretyman Newman, Major Sir Harry and Jady Newton, Colonel Sir Henry and Lady Norvie, Sir John and Lady Protyman Newman, Major Sir Harry and John and Lady Norton-Griffiths, the Rev, the Marquess and Marchoness of Normanby, the Duchess of Norfolk and di be eas this qu becaus so cons of expa ing int symna. allevia implies man o sufferir. may lea last dis If the

is also r be mai ness. must s men th pain. only gr this fa relieve what doubt most a in pair perien them sufferi

mediu

appea

Hos

for wl purpo which are, of the dy our sp Christ respon hone beyone caused be put We m is pair limits purest must Divine of ma which which church hospita henefit both of hospita ance w thus The pr freed f from t tinents the me their l hospita self-int

> Psyc theorie Some a and d mother nart i and he gregari evitabl victim concern

with m

sin.

with white Petersham sibbon and a tult of white paradise plumes. She was attended by two bridesmaids, Miss Lucas-Scudamore and Miss Minnie Burke, who wore dresses of bois de rose georgette with Bangkok straw hats to match, and carried sheaves of pink roses.

The best man was Mr. Richard John Norbury. There was no reception after the ceremony, but a family luncheon party was held at the Berkeley Hotel. Among the guests at the wedding were:— Lord Rossmore with the Hon. Richard Westenra, the

The honeymoon is being spent on the Conltel.

the

ster-

t.T..

will

and

ton-

will visit at

ŀĬ of

arres

 \mathbf{from}

iros. St .

116,

outh-New

rived vfair.

rived

d to

are ruise have

lyhich ture. ester

Leigh-

fromeland. ng at

, until

ben de aesdav. Tropi-ned by ill hold by per-day, at

 $_{
m mes}.$

tions at tia Hos-f Wales at Lady

House-

June 24

mberton

n.

hy.

lk.

MRS. BALDWIN'S SECOND GARDEN PARTY.

The Prime Minister and Mrs. Baldwin gave the second of their political garden parties yesterday at 10, Downing-street, Miss Betty Baldwin and Mrs. Gordon Munro helping to receive the guests. The weather being finer, tea was served in tents in the garden.

Among those present were :-

in tents in the garden.

Among those present were:—

Tord and Lady Harris, the Earl and Countess of Harrowby, Lord and Lady Hunsdon, Lord Inverelyde, Lord and Lady Herriorth, Earl and Countess ellieoe, Lord and Lady Jessel, Lord Kylsant and the Hon. Honor Philipps, Lord Lambourne, Lord and Lady Lamuston, Mary Lady Lawrence and the Hon. Anna Lawrence, Lord and Lady Lawrence of Fareham, the Countess of Lindsay, Lord Lovat, the Earl of Malmesbury, Viscount sand Viscountess Lee of Fareham, the Countess of Lindsay, Lord Lovat, the Earl and the Hon. Diana Skeffington, Lord merivale, Lord Merthyr and the Hon. Anna Lewis, the Earl and Countess of Midleton, Lord and Lady Mostyn, the Earl and Countess of Midleton, Lord and Lady Mostyn, the Earl and Countess of Mount-Bageumbe, Lord and Lady Newton, Lord and Lady Oratimore and Browne, Viscount and Viscountess of Midleton, Lord and Lady Mostyn, Lord and Lady Queenborough, the Countess of Radhor, Lord and Lady Queenborough, the Countess of Radhor, Lord and Lady Wavertree, the Earl and Countess of Wennyss, Lord and Lady Wavertree, the Earl and Countess of Wennyss, Lord and Lady Wavertree, the Earl and Countess of Wennyss, Lord and Lady Wyslod. Sir John and Lady Yate. Sir Frederick and Lady Wyslod. Sir John and Lady Wate, Sir Broteriac, Lord and Lady Wysford, the Countess of Yarborough, Viscount Younger.

Sir Harry and Lady Hope, Mr. James Hope, Sir Alfred and Lady Hopkinson, Sir Robert Horne, Sir George Hune, Sir Harry and Lady Hopkinson, Sir Robert Horne, Sir George Hune, Sir Harry and Lady Hopkinson, Sir Robert Horne, Sir George Hune, Sir Harry and Lady Hopkinson, Sir Robert Horne, Sir George Hune, Sir Harry and Lady Hopkinson, Sir Robert Horne, Sir George Hune, Sir Harry and Lady Hopkinson, Sir Robert Horne, Sir George Hune, Sir Harry and Miss House, Sir Hune, William Sir Makenda, Miss Horne, Mis

and Lady Wood, and Sir Laming and Lady Worthington Evans.

Sir Edward and Lady Alderson, Canon and Mrs. Carnegie, Sir Sydney and Lady Chapman. Sir George Chrystal and Miss Chrystal, Sir William and Lady Clark, Sir Thomas and Lady Comyn-Platt, Sir Archibald Craig and Miss Craig. Sir Herbert and Lady Creed, Sir William and Lady Davies, Sir Lionel and Lady Earle, Sir Frank and Lady Davies, Sir Itionel and Lady Heath, Sir Angaler-General Sir William and Lady Horwood, Sir Robert and Lady Maeth, Sir Thomas and Lady Low, Sir Lynden and Lady Lorden. Sir Sidney and Lady Low, Sir Lynden and Lady Macassey, Sir Charles and Lady Markette, Sir Frank Sir Henry Maxwell-Lyte and Miss Maxwell-Lyte, Sir Einest and Lady Morton, Sir Edward Nicholl, Sir John and Lady Norton-Griffiths, Lady Delia Peel, Sir Henry and Lady Poson, Mr. and Mrs. George Pinckard, Colonel Sir Thomas and Lady Polson, Sir William Porter and Miss Porter, Lleutenant-General Sir William Porter and Miss Porter, Lleutenant-General Sir William Porter and Miss Porter, Lleutenant-General Sir William and Lady Pulteney, Sir Lancelot and Lady Mand Rolleston, Sir Claud and Lady Strangman, Mr. Francis Sulley, Rear-Admiral and Mrs. Ernest Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. George Terrell, and Sir Arthur and Lady Thring.

Notices of Forthcoming Marriages and other Society Announcements on this page are inserted at the following rates: Three guineas for five lines or less, and twelve shillings and sixpence for each additional line. "Advertisers' Announcements," two guineas per line. A line consists of about seven words. Announcements which are subject to editorial revision should be addressed to the Manager, Private Announcement Department, "The Times," London, E.C. 4. Black letters should be used for names and addresses.

Searon, The Hon. Towns and Lady Bertha Searon, the Bon. Wilfred and Mrs. Isoaron, Wescomit and Viscountess Efficients and Mrs. Isoaron, Viscountess Christon, Lord and Lady Farmann, Viscount and Viscountess Flitzahin of Derwent, the Earl and Commess of Pitzavillan, Lord and Lady Farmann, Viscountess of Lady Forest, St. Major Sir Charles and the Hon. Lady Forest, St. Major Sir Charles and Lady Dorothy. Fraser, Kathleen, Viscountess Ladine Sir Thomas and Lady Forest, Parser, Kathleen, Viscountess Ladine Lady Dorothy. Fraser, Kathleen, Viscountess Ladine Lady Dorothy. Fraser, Kathleen, Viscountess Ladine Lady Dorothy. Fraser, Kathleen, Viscountess Ladine Lady Branch Lady Helen Portses. Baron Iranskerstein, the French Ambassador and Rine. de Fluttinad Gisborouch, Lord and Lady Glentanar, Fari and Countess Grey. Sir John Ganzoni, Lieutenant-Colonel & Hamilton, Gault, Colonel 11. Act Colonel 12. Act Colonel 12. Act Colonel 12. Act Colonel 13. Act Colonel 12. Act Colonel 13. Act Colonel 13. Act Colonel 13. Act Colonel 14. Act Colonel

(Continued in next column.)

Sortine, Van Swingberen.

Swing

LADY BLAND-SUTTON AND THE HON URSULA LAWLEY.

Princess Arthur of Connaught was present at the At Home held by Lady Bland-Sutton and the Hon. Ursula Lawley yesterday afternoon at 47, Brook-street, in connexion with the Middlesex Hospital Carnation Ball. The Princess, in a short speech, appealed for support for the ball to be held on July 5 at Claridge's, and announced that she and Prince Arthur of Connaught would bring a party. Among those present were :-

Among those present were:—
Sybil Countess Brassey, Countess Bathurst, Lady
Cicely Gathorne-Hardy, Gertrude Lady Decics, Viscountses
de Vesci, the Hon, Lady Norman with Miss Rosalind Norman, Lady, Mond, Lady Windham, Lady Henry, Lady Lawson, Lady Rothband, Lady Alexander, Mrs. Victor
Bonney, Mrs. Gordon Taylor, Mrs. Salisbury-Jones, Mrs. Wesley Watson, Mrs. Kendal, Mrs. Cecil Raphael,
Mr. and Mrs. Sam Baer, Mrs. A. C. Bendit, and Mr. B. A.
Mayer.

could than inter to Ch tificat dure mer help the not to s súre heal allia clair hav kno conf can Ji fice goes

mal

our

hig

tha

bin

in t

ing pita fait God

joy worl

beca

clain

of h life' in b of G

The har

The Princ Vic Oriel

Ch

Mr. I

Coachi

Prize St.

Old C

Selborne Internati League Park, British

lands,
St. Mark
St. Ma
Sir Arhlu
shireme
to 6.30
Cricket:
Lord's

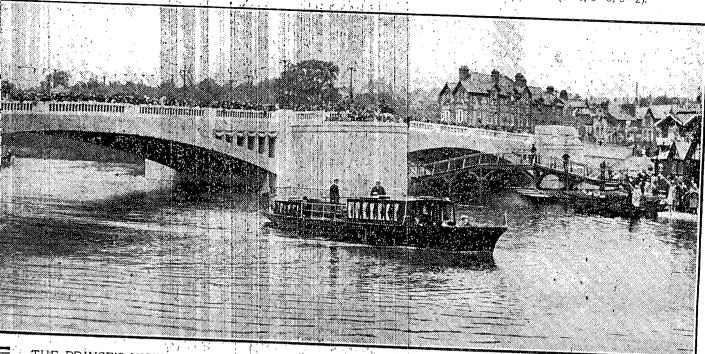

Hospital (afterno British 1

venor-pl

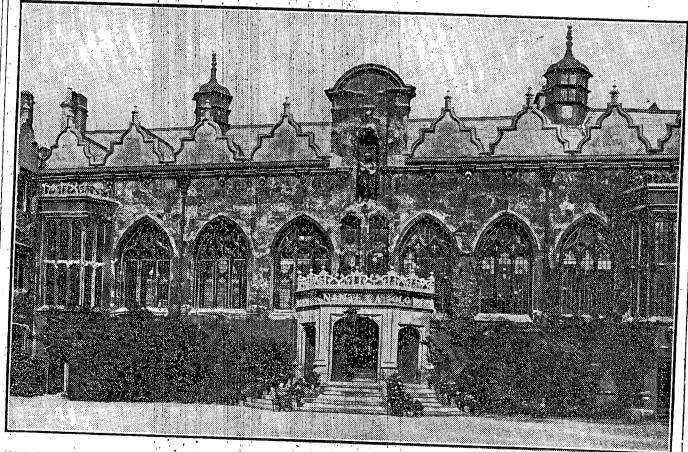

rea of the Lake District that has been secured for the nations through the valley will become a national forest and the summits of the hills will always blillar, and the lake is in the distance. Ennerdale Valley marches with the lake is in the distance.

THE DUKE OF YORK playing in the Doubles at Wimbledon yesterday; he was partnered by Commander Greig. Their opponents, Mr. Roper Barrett and Mr. A. W. Gore, won by three sets to none (6-1, 6-3, 6-2).

THE PRINCE'S VISIT TO READING.—The Prince of Wales paid his postponed visit to Reading yesterday, unveiling tablets on the new Caversham Bridge and inspecting several industrial and educational establishments in the town. Our photograph shows the Prince leaving the bridge in a launch.

SIX CENTURIES OF ORIEL.—To-day Oriel College, Oxford, celebrates the 600th anniversary of its foundation. Above we reproduce a photograph of the exterior of the hall. A special article by the Provost of Oriel appears on page 15.

WITH TOUCES