

International Press-Cutting Bureau,
51, Red Lion St., London, W.C. 1.

Extract from Bristol Times and Mirror

9 APR 1929

312
Social & Personal.

Viscount Tredegar is entertaining a house party for the Chepstow races to-day and to-morrow.

Mr. Philip A. Laszlo de Lomho has presented a canvas to Major the Hon. J. J. Astor, M.P., for auction for the benefit of the Newspaper Press Fund.

Mr. Cyril Maude, the actor-manager, is lying dangerously ill in a London nursing home.

Lord and Lady Harlech are at Bath.

The Pope has appointed Cardinal Ehrle to succeed the late Cardinal Gasquet as Librarian of the Vatican and Keeper of the Archives of the Holy Roman Church.

King Boris of Bulgaria has arrived in Brussels.

The engagement is announced between R. E. Malcolm Sommerville, eldest son of the late R. G. Sommerville and of Mrs. Sommerville, Rushton House, Taunton, and Evelyn Penelope, youngest daughter of the late Alexander and Mrs. Stead, of Romsey.