

4th May, 1923.

Dear Mr. Wills,

I have just sent off a cheque for £231. 5. 0 to the Art Pavements & Decorations Ltd, for the laying of the parquet flooring in the Studio, and I wish to mention that further cracking is shewing itself, and in the second studio I notice there are two ~~pieces~~<sup>blocks</sup> sunk on one side which must have been put in wrong at the time they were laid. I would be glad if you will arrange for the man who did the floor to come along and put matters right again.

I thought you would have kept back the usual 10% of the amount until the work was completely finished.

Before I pay Messrs White for the panelling, I wish to mention that I understood at the time that the items for painting picture rods and the electric lighting were to be included in the estimate of £375. 13. 0.

Also, do you not think that the amount of £75 for a simple fireplace is rather exorbitant?

On hearing from you on these points, I will arrange matters.

Yours sincerely,

G. Berkeley Wills Esq.
