Dear Mr. de Laigle -

The Pagoda will be altered on Monday.
I should have seen the packing people who will bring you early next week to discuss the alteration to the steps on the terrace. There are several on so there will be so difficult in altering them.

I should like to express my regret, again, that I did not get these things to you looking at first; I trust that they will however be quite satisfactory. My sincerely

The people who did the alterations are asking whether you are going to have those in the house done now, but I expect you will put them off for the time -

Yours sincerely

G. Berkeley Wills.
