Dear Mr. de Laszlo -

On further examination and report of the E. Wall of your large Studio I have regretfully come to the conclusion that I cannot undertake any interference with it, and therefore must decline to be responsible for the framing of a fanlight over the entrance doors as requested by you.

I am very reluctant to make this refusal; but should this wall show any further settlement after I had interfered with it, such settlement might possibly be attributed to my alterations, and this responsibility I am not prepared to face - with the wall in its present condition -

Yours sincerely
G. Berkeley Wills.
