Dear Sirs,

I am directed by Mr. de Laszlo to reply to your letter of the 12th instant, and to say that as he has had so many unexpected calls to meet recently, he regrets he cannot entertain the suggestion of purchasing the picture by Fritz Thaulow. Mr. de Laszlo already has one good picture.

Mr. de Laszlo also wishes me to mention that you promised to collect the portrait of Miss Morgan from here today, but this has not been done, and as he is anxious that the portraits which have to be sent to Paris should be despatched by Monday, as most of the people are leaving Paris, he will be glad if you will collect the Morgan portrait from here without fail tomorrow.

Yours faithfully,
