Dear Mr. de Laszlo,

We are just closing our books for the half year, and have finished taking stock of our pictures, and it has occurred to me that the picture by Fritz Thaulow which you saw at the Gallery might still interest you, and that you might be tempted to acquire it for your collection if I was able to accept what would be, to you, a very tempting price for it.

It may be that you would like to see how it hangs in your collection, and if you would let me know whether you would like me to send it up to you I should be delighted to do so, and I shall be glad to hear from you regarding this picture.

With kind remembrances,
Yours sincerely,

P. A. de Laszlo, Esq.,
