My dear de Laigle

I have wired to my Secretary to say you could have your portrait of me whenever you wanted it

Do no doubt it is going the gallery today.

Of the many de Laigle's pictures I have seen I know of none better than those you did of my wife & of myself. They are completely different in style

& each perfect of its kind.

I am looking forward to seeing the exhibition & should be greatly obliged for tickets for the friends whose names I am sending as you request to 120 Pall Mall.

Our kindest regards
yours as always

Yours sincerely
