Dear Mr. de Laszlo,

Thank you for your letter of May 28th. My wife and I returned from abroad yesterday, and saw by the gap on the wall, that the portrait had been removed. We shall hope to come to your show on May 31st. and shall look forward very much to seeing the collection.

No, the portrait has not been hung near a fireplace, but has been on the wall in this house where you saw it ever since it arrived. But I am very glad to hear that you are getting it put into first rate condition again.

Yours very truly,

John Simon
