My dear Mr de Langlois

I have only just received your letter of the 19th & telegraphed to you to say that my passport could be collected from Bournemouth tomorrow.
My wife begs me to say how sorry she is that she cannot accept

Your kind invitation for today tomorrow but she will not be back in London till today week.

We shall greatly look forward to your exhibition.

Yours sincerely

Pellmeur

P.S. Please remember us both very kindly to Mrs de Laigle
